RENT FROM THE EXPERTS

Why rent from a "Rental Company" when you can rent your water heater from your local heating professionals . . .

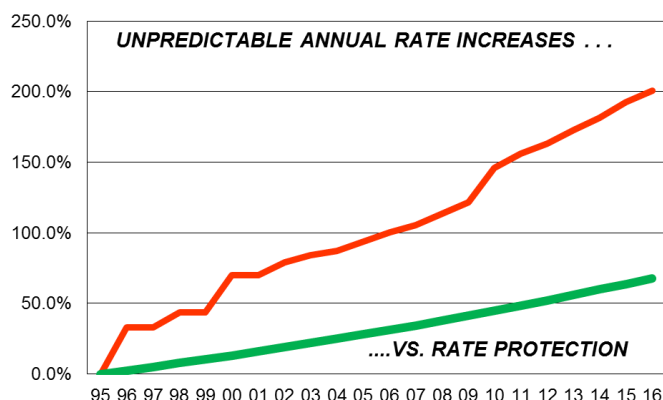

RENTAL WATER HEATER FACTS:

- You are not renting your water heater from the "Gas Company":
- Enbridge™ sold the water heater portfolio to Centrica, an international energy services company based in the United Kingdom which operated in Canada under the brand name Direct Energy™, recently it was sold again to Enercare™. They bill on the gas bill, and they picked a name that may lead you to believe they are part of Enbridge™, but they are not in any way affiliated with the Enbridge™ gas utility.
- Union Gas™ does not own Reliance Home Comfort™. Union Gas sold their rental business, Reliance Home Comfort™, which is now owned by Alinda Capital Partners, a U.S. based capital fund.
- You have a Choice There is nothing stopping you from getting a new energy efficient rental water heater from THE BOILER GUYS.
- Your water heater rental rate has gone up...A LOT! Check your bills, chances are your rate went up by over 10% in 2010 and has increased by an average of 5.5% per year over the past 20 years!
